

Poetry Workshop: Poem 1

Verb Poem

A Verb Poem is a poem made up almost entirely of verbs. The version we will do will be made up of 13 lines, like the example

Pick a subject (specifically a noun—person/animal, place, thing, or idea). This noun is the title of your Verb Poem. Choose a rhyme scheme and write 13 lines describing your noun (subject) using strong verb choices. See the example below:

This poem will be a part of your Poetry Book. For full credit, your poem needs:

- A consistent rhyme scheme with 1 stanza made up of 13 lines
- A title (your subject, noun)
- Strong, descriptive verb word choices
- Correct spelling
- Correct formatting
